

USF Sarasota-Manatee students to 'turn the tables' on employers

SARASOTA, Fla. (Nov. 07, 2018) — USF Sarasota-Manatee students will get the opportunity to “turn the

The event, called “The Tables Have Turned: USFSM’s Inaugural Reverse Career Fair,” is scheduled

Reverse career fairs are uncommon but gaining attention on campuses as students look to spend more

Unlike regular job fairs, where students answer a handful of questions while dropping off a resume, re

“We wanted to create a career fair with added value for both students and employers,” Ben Heins, coo

Students selected for the event represent a cross-section of academic programs at the campus’ four c

They were vetted several weeks ago, with information about the students sent to employers in advanc

Lukas Oest, a marketing major set to graduate in May, said that in addition to practicing for the meetin

“As a senior, I understand the importance of building relationships with potential future employers,” O

Also, it doesn't place students in direct competition with seasoned employees, as at typical job fairs h

Simone Peterson, a neighborhood specialist for Manatee County government, said she's looking forw

"Finding talented candidates that also fit into our organization's culture can be difficult," said Peterson

To RSVP your organization as a sponsor or employee tables," visit

###

Joomla SEO powered by JoomSEF